Press Release: Evading accident Main Street Middletown

Middletown Police are seeking the public's help identifying the owner/operator of this evading vehicle. The evading accident occurred Tuesday evening (12/16/2014) just after 9:30 pm.

The unoccupied vehicle that was struck was parked in a parking stall on Main Street (in front of the St. Vincent De Paul Soup Kitchen) in Middletown's north end between Grand Street and Liberty Street. The evading vehicle was traveling southbound on Main Street when the collision occurred. A witness saw the vehicle make a right hand turn onto Liberty Street after the accident. Video surveillance captures what appears to be a silver colored Honda Civic fleeing west on Liberty Street. The evading vehicle has heavy frontend damage to the right side. If you recognize this vehicle or know anything about this accident you are urged to contact the Middletown Police at 860-638-4000.

Below is a link to a video showing the evading vehicle turning right onto Liberty Street. The evading vehicle stops briefly behind a black a vehicle that stops to let someone out.
